POOL ROOMS INCLUDED.

In Sunday Closing Edict of the Local Pastors.

That the fight for Sunday closing in Corpus Christi now being undertaken by the Pastors Association, will not be confined to the picture shows alone, but will also include the hotel andillard rooms of the city, became evident yesterday, when notice was received on the latter that they would be proscribed in case they attempted to keep their places of business open on Sundays.

Courts Attorney called in person on half of the picture shows and also a number of the pool rooms yesterday and advised the owners of the intention to attempt to close the places.

No statement was made by any of the courts as to what action they will take in the premises, and the matter has probably been closed until Sunday, when it will be seen whether or not the ultimatum will be obeyed.

The present appearance in Corpus Christi is not the first of the Fox ministry and those who attended last night and had witnessed the show on former occasions were unanimous in the opinion that the show was the best ever put on here by the company.

The opening was in true ministerial style, and the end men, with their one-hundred bows and gags were evidence as usual. A number of feature songs were well rendered during the first part that were good.

But the best part of the show undoubtedly during the "olio" which is the accepted name for "variety" is Boyle Bros. in comedy lecturing and Edward Thalde in an act of grotesque contortion has stunts that were above the average. Joe Kelly, ballad singer, was also good and the balance of the program was fair.

A complete change of program is announced for tonight. On Saturday a special matinee will be given at 2:30 p. m.

Johnny Doubters.

The cantata "Johnny Doubters" will be given at the High School auditorium tonight, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. The entertainment is given under the auspices of the Young Men's Club and the proceeds will go toward a fund for paying the indebtedness incurred in the purchase of the piano given by the club to the school.

We realize," stated Chief Riggs, "therefore it will be to have the discharge of fireworks. United to the residence district of the city, but owing to the strong chances of fire, the police have been notified to use all diligence in the prevention of the firing of rockets and roman candles in the business district of the city."

Most merchants make big profits at Christmas time. With me it's different. I want to go out of business and therefore cut prices on everything, especially on toys, dolls and fancy goods. R. Miller, Mission St.

Premier Yuan Shih Kai Favors Limited Monarchy

(By The Associated Press.)

PEKING, Dec. 21.—Premier Yuan Shih Kai, in an official statement today, declared, without qualification, that he will refuse to accept a republic in settlement of the Chinese revolution, as proposed at the peace conference in Shanghai yesterday. He favors limited monarchy.

A continuation of the conflict in China now seems to be the only possibility ahead for that empire.
